

Alderman Demands Hirshfield Explain His Zoo Inquiry

Falconer Wants Commissioner to Tell Methods Used;
Official Would Examine
Many Public Institutions

Alderman Bruce M. Falconer, Republican, introduced a resolution at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen yesterday calling upon David Hirshfield, Commissioner of Accounts, to appear before the board to be questioned in regard to his investigation and findings relative to the management of the Bronx Zoological Park. The resolution was introduced, Alderman Falconer said, because it appeared that Commissioner Hirshfield had taken testimony only from those who it was believed would criticize the New York Zoological Society, of which Dr. William T. Hornaday is the head.

Alderman Falconer incorporated a list of questions in his resolution which he wants the Commissioner of Accounts to answer when he appears before the board. He asks whether the investigation was begun upon the initiative of the Commissioner of Accounts or the suggestion of Mayor Hylan or members of the Zoological Society. He also asks whether the investigation was conducted by a committee of the board or by a committee of the city.

He also asks whether the investigation was conducted by a committee of the board or by a committee of the city.
